

Allusion

An allusion is a reference to a well-known place, event, person, work of art, or other work of literature.

Thebes is an allusion to:

- A) a thief
- B) a well-known warrior
- C) a famous city in ancient Greece
- D) a disease

When he mentions Camelot, the poet is making an allusion to

- A) a rich dessert
- B) a bad dream he had
- C) a famous painting
- D) the city of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table.

Priam is an allusion to:

- A) a king of Troy
- B) a queen of Egypt
- C) a city in Rome
- D) A Mogol warrior.

The Medici were

- A) master painters of the 18th and 19th centuries
- B) a cultured Italian family in the 15th and 16th centuries
- C) Renaissance musicians
- D) rare and beautiful birds

What does Miniver Cheever do to get ahead in life?

- A) become a night
- B) nothing
- C) work hard and earn a lot of gold
- D) become famous for his dreams