

Drawing Conclusions

Based on paragraph three, what can the reader MOST LIKELY conclude about Old Man Riley's son?

- A) He drives a tan SUV.
- B) He believes in ghosts.
- C) He doesn't care much about his father.
- D)
He is clean and incredibly organized.

Why does Austin run toward home at the end of the story?

- A) He hears weird noises coming from inside the Riley house.
- B) He peeks in the window and the man sees him.
- C) He is startled by a loud chirping sound.
- D) He fears he will get in trouble by his mother.

The reader can tell that the man in the suit is MOST LIKELY

- A) Old Man Riley's son.
- B) Old Man Riley's lawyer.
- C) Old Man Riley's friend.
- D) Old Man Riley.

Based on the condition of his house, the reader can conclude that Old Man Riley probably

- A) lived happily near the woods.
- B) designed and built his house himself.
- C) was a lonely old man who saved everything.
- D) had two children, both sons.