

Simile and Metaphore

Lines 6-9 are examples of:

- A) metaphors
- B) personification
- C) similes
- D) alliteration

Lines "Soft as lamb's wool, fleecy snow / a lacy shawl of new-fallen snow" contains"

A) internal rhyme

B) metaphors

C) alliteration

D) similies

Lines 24-26 would be metaphors if they did not contain the word:

A) as

B) quiet

C) a

D) or

According to this poem, what is a cliché?

- A) an effective poem
- B) an overused, stale simile
- C) many different kinds of similes
- D) a type of extreme laziness

In this poem, the poet is saying that metaphors and similes:

- A) must be included in all poems
- B) are only necessary in some poems
- C) are never used by lazy poets
- D) must be fresh and vivid to be effective